FEDERAL BUNCH DECIDE UPON SPRY

United States Marshal Is to Be Their Candidate for Governor of Utah.

WHEN CONVENTION MEETS CUTLER WILL BE NAMED

Cancus to Consider the Merits of Several Aspirants Is Held in This City.

"If the federal bunch can prevent it John C. Cutler will not be the nominee of the church Republicans of Utah for governor," said the Prominent Politician to The Stroller on Wednesday. "This much." he continued, "was arought out at a meeting of the church Republicans in the office of Willard Hanson in the D. F. Walker building on Wednesday.

"Lest I forget it, this man Hanson is the county attorney of Salt Lake county. He knows-if he does not be does not read-that Joseph F. Smith, prophet, seer and revelator of the Mormon church, is a law-breaker. He knows that this man, who assumes to be the monthpiece of Almighty God, is a law-breaker. He knows that this alleged monthpiece of the supreme being has brought illegitimate children into the world and is doing so now. He knows that be Willard Hanson, county attorney of Salt Lake county, has taken

Oath Taken by Hanson

I. Williard Hanson, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this State, and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

"This county alterney knows that the constitution of the State of Utah in arti-cle III provides that polygamous mar-tinges are forever probibited. This county attorney knows that section 4208 of the Revised Statutes of

Utah provides thus:

4208 Polygam, defined. Every person who has a husband or wife living, who bereafter marries another, whether married or single, and any man who hereafter simultaneously, or on the same day, marries more than one woman is guilty of polygamy, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300 and by imprisonment in the State prison for a term of not more than five years.

"He, that is, this Willard Hauson, this county attorney for Salt Lake coun-ty, knows that section 4209 of these same Revised Statutes provides that 'if any male person hereafter cohabits with more than one woman he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment in the county juil for not more than six menths, or by both said punishments in not more than $300 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both said punishments in the discretion of the court.

But in the face of this he knows that no warrant will be issued on the eath of any reputable citizen for the arrest of these law-breakers, because it is to them that he owes his election to office. Yet in the face of all this, Willard Hanson, this violator of his oath of office, permits a meeting to be held in his office to consider who shall be the chief executive of the State whose laws he daily defes.

'The Tribune announced this meeting in the issue of Wednesday, the only paper, by the way, which printed such announcement. There were present at this meeting the federal bunch, Jody Eldredge, Senator Sutherland, Major Myton and this County Attorney Hanson.

nouncement. There were present at this meeting the federal bunch, Jody Eldredge, Senator Sutherland, Major Myton and this County Attorney Hanson, and they did what?

Threats of a Suit.

"Considered first a letter from a prominent lawyer of Salt Lake, which said that unless James Devine and Harry S. Joseph paid the sum of $140 due Gideon A. Gibbs for work for the church Republican party in the year 1907 that he would bring suit. The gang decided to let him sue.

"Then the question of who should be governor of Utah was taken up. Three names were considered, viz., John C. Cutler, 'the man who sat on the President's left,' present executive and pugi-listic occupant of the gubernatorial chair; Ed Loose, partner and right bow-er of Apostle Smoot, member of the Re-publican national committee and would-be boss of Utsh: William Spry, United States marshal, personal representative of the man who wields the big stick at Washington good saint and lines or Washington, good saint and direct em-bassador of the hierarchy to the President of the United States.

"The merits of the several candidates were considered. The puglistic executive's candidacy was laid upon the table after his merits — mostly demerits were discussed. He was too independent for the bunch.

Then came Ed Loose, the statesman rom Provo. It was feared that if he was nominated that with Smoot's candidacy the people would say that Smoot wanted the earth. Parenthetically, I might remark that he does.

But this meeting was called to decide who the participants would like to run for governor. Later the hierarch will inform them, and those who were present will vote as King Joe says. The hierarch's selection is Kid Cutler, 'the man who sat on the President's left' and pugilistic executive of Utah Bunch Favors Spry.

"As I said, the majority of those present wanted Loose, but Peewee Thomas stated that Loose could not nake a speech. All he could say would be 'huh, huh.' While this might be intelligible to the saints it would not be to the Gentiles. Of course, Peewee saw his chance for holding on to the public teat would go glimmering, so he opposed Loose. Besides, Loose has a mind of his own, and that kind of a man the federal bunch opposed. Finally, man the lederal bunch opposed Finally, after a long confab the conference decided to stand by Bill Spry, so from now on until the convention meets Spry for governor will be the battle cry. When the convention meets Cutler will be nominated. The hierarchy has set him apart. That settles it."

City License Assessor, Salt Lake City:
Dear Sir.—In writing you this letter we do so believing that you can and will bring it before the proper authority, with whom we should be glad to meet in the devising of ways and means to correct the evil that we now complain of.
Salt Lake City is, at the present time,
a dumping ground for probably the worst class of meats that are sold in any city in the United States, for the reason of the laxity of putting into effect the inspection law. For your information we beg to say that the inspection law now exists in certain plants that are putting meats on the Salt Lake market, the Government inspector being installed, and where the inspector being installed, and where the inspector's stamp is placed on the meat it is evidence to the consuming public inspector, season is placed on the meats it is evidence to the consuming public that the meats have been passed upon for health by the Federal Inspector; but the Federal inspector sees only a small portion of the meats that are sold in Salt Lake City for food. For instance, meats are shipped into this city by expressivery day, by farmers, speculators and interest consigned in many instances to commission men, who make a business to sell to anybody who will buy—retailers, intoits and restaurants, or whoever desires to buy. But in many instances the goods are shipped direct to the retail market. Every express wagon brings in meats every day, some of it good and some of it questionable, and some of it that ought not to be permitted to be used for food. We believe that there is now sufficient law to protect the consuming public against unprincipled doalers, and also to protect legitimate men. Therefore, we say that we shall be glad to meet with the proper authority, if it is desired, and aid in the devising of a plan whereby no meats can be gold in Salt Lake City that do not carry the inspector's stamp. Respectfully submitted, INTERMOUNTAIN PACKING CO.

For two years last past Charley Caswell was a trusted employee of The Tribune. When The Tribune was moved into its present quarters Mr. Caswell was placed in charge of The Tribune telephone exchange, and from 6 p. m. to 3 a. m. he was on duty. He had the dog watch, in newspaper parlance, in the business office.

Last Sunday he was stricken down and when removed to St. Mark's the surgeons pronounced his disease strangulated hernia. Everything possible was done that medical and surgical science could do. He was advised of his condition Wednesday and informed that, while an operation might save his life, the chances were largely against him. He took the chance. The end came as the surgeons predicted, shortly after the operation was performed.

MRS. HILTON SUES FOR PARK ESTATE

Action Begun in District Court to Recover Property Sold by Doctor.

NUMEROUS PERSONS ARE NAMED AS DEFENDANTS

Celestial Wife Acts Upon Rights Given Her by the Supreme Court.

Eight cases in which Mrs. Annie F. A. Hilton is plaintiff were submitted to Judge Morse in the equity division of the Third District court Wednesday afternoon. These cases are offshoots of the famous "celestial marriage" of Mrs. Hilton and Dr. John R. Park, a prominent Mormon educator.

Many years ago, while the present Mrs. Hilton was presumably on her death bed, she was married to Dr. John death bed, she was married to Dr. John, B. Park, the ceremony being what is known in the Mormon church as a "celestial marriage," which, it was later claimed, was a marriage for eternity only. Dr. Park died in this city in October, 1900, and Mrs. Hilton, who had been married to W. A. Hilton, the well known police officer, for many years, brought suit to have herself declared the widow of Dr. Park. The supreme court of Utah held that the "celestial marriage" was a marriage for time, as well as eternity, and declared Mrs. Hilton to be the legal widow of Park. She was also given a disof Park. She was also given a dis-tributive share of the estate.

In the cases submitted Wednesday. Mrs. Hilton is suing for her share in various pieces of real estate sold by Dr. Park prior to his death. The defendants in the cases are Mrs. George E. Blair et al., Hobert W. Sloan et al., Adoiph Anderson et al., Fred Stanffer et al., Elizabeth Geoghegan et al., Everard Bierer, Jr., et al., J. P. Cunningham et al., and Salt Lake City et al.

The properties involved are valued at The properties involved are valued at about $30,000, exclusive of improvements, but with the improvements that have been placed upon them are worth several times that sum.

When the cases were called Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Hilton was placed upon the stand and examined by her attorney, Nathaniel V. Jones. Mrs. Hilton testified that she had never sold or disposed of her interest in any of the properties involved in the suits and that she did not know the properties had here add waith of Dr. been sold until after the death of Dr. Park.

William H. King of counsel for the defendants subjected Mrs. Hilton to a rigid cross-examination. She admitted that during the '70s she lived at the homes of Daniel H. Wells and Brigham Young, but she denied that she knew anything concerning the property of Dr. Park. She said that she had talked to him on one occasion, but that he talked about his prospects instead of his property.

about his prespects instead of his proj erty.
Judge King asked Mrs. Hilton if she did not know of the marriage of George W. Thatcher to a daughter of Brighsm Young while Mrs. Hilton was living in Young's family, and of the further fact that Dr. Park sold a lot to Thatcher upon which a house was built. Mrs. Hilton said she knew of the marriage, but did not know anything of the real estate transaction.
